

It is a masterpiece of the original Bulgarian building school. The wood carved iconostasis is among the best pieces of Revival Period art in the Balkan Peninsula. Working here were the brothers Fruchkovski from Debur, who also trained local wood carvers. Three among the original icons are the work of Stanislav Dospevski. One of them is the icon of St St Cyril and Methodius.