

The Etnografical Museum is displayed in a beautiful restored house that once belonged to a wealthy local corn – merchant. It shows the cosy atmosphere of typical village and town guest – rooms of the end of the 19th century. The numerous authentic exhibits, arrayed on two floors, show the development of handicrafts ( cart – wright’sq blacksmith’s trade, carpentry, cooperage ), the occupations and the lifestyle of Balchik residents ( working and formal clothes, fishermen’s nets, a loom and harvesters, tools, jewels ), etc.
