

Elenite holiday making settlement is located along the Black Sea coast in the southernmost seaside slopes of the Balkan Range, about 27 km northeast of Nessebur and 55 km from Bourgas. The scenic and most varied natural environment, as well as the up-to-date infrastructure increase the numbers of those wishing to come on holidays in this quiet and calm, but deluxe resort complex. The tennis court, the well-stocked equipment for rent for the practicing of water sports, and the seclusion of the beach are the additional extras, guaranteed to the holiday makers here.