

Belogradchik is situated in the northwestern part of Bulgaria. It is picturesquely located in the western part of Stara Planina, at the southwestern foot of Belogradchik garland, at 545m above sea level. Belogradchik is about 170km. away from Sofia, 55km.-from Vidin, 70km - from Montana. Urbanized and attractive, Belogradchik is one of the most attractive national tourist places in Bulgaria. The natural characteristics and rich historical inheritance define the town as one of the most interesting and desired tourist attractions.