We present an opportunity to visit two of Romania's most unique sights, the Snagov Monastery, and the Mogosaia Palace.

HIGHLIGHTS

- ✓ Visit the Mogosaia Palace and admire The Brancovenian Style - an unique architectural style created in Romania
- ✓ Visit - Dracula's Tomb in Snagov Monastery - a 14th century monastery located on the island in the middle of Snagov Lake

This fascinating tour of Snagov Monastery and Mogosaia Palace is an amazing opportunity to admire two of Romania's most unique sights, which are within easy reach of nearby Bucharest, although a million miles away in terms of ambience.

First up is a tour of Mogosoia Palace, during which you will be able to explore its spectacular gardens and delight in its unique Brancovenian style of architecture, which blends Venetian and Ottoman elements. This is the Romanian Renaissance at its finest, and you will learn so much during your guided tour. The grandeur of Mogosoia Palace will leave a lasting impression, and located just 15km from the city center it's a convenient and stunning attraction.

Following your journey into history you will head over to Snagov Monastery, which is a 14th century religious site located on an island in the middle of Snagov Lake. Alleged throughout myth and legend to house Dracula's tomb the monastery is a peaceful oasis surrounded by fresh air and a lovely park, but prepare yourself because intrigue and adventure lie in wait throughout this tour of Snagov Monastery. The calming air of the monastery's grounds is a million miles away from the hustle and bustle of vibrant Bucharest, and you will feel at ease as you explore it's many fascinating features.
